

KEY RESUMES

James P. Depatie
Director of Planning Services

Education

Upon graduating from The Abbey School in Canon City, Jim Depatie went on to receive a Bachelor of Environmental Design degree from the University of Colorado, Boulder in 1977.

Professional Experience

After receiving his degree, Jim joined the architectural and planning firm of Barber and Yergensen in Colorado Springs, Colorado. From 1977 to 1984 he worked extensively on master planning mixed-use and residential projects as well as community revitalization planning. His involvement included agency coordination, data collection, as-built documentation and extensive drafting and graphic presentation work.

Since 1984, Jim has also been involved in architectural projects, working extensively on site plans and production of construction documents. He also continues to be responsible for planning work within Yergensen, Obering, & Whittaker, P.C., including agency coordination, research and data collection, and document production.

Selected Honors and Awards

Jim has had a major contributing role in projects recognized by the following awards:

- * National Endowment for the Arts: Award for a Design Guidelines Publication - Manitou Springs, CO Downtown Design Plan
- * MAME Award: Pine Terrace at Broadmoor Townhomes
- * City of Littleton, CO Beautification Award for Market at SouthPark Shopping Center